

Continuous growth of graphitic films:

To develop a new methodology for the continuous growth of graphitic films for thermal management applications (in collaboration with industrial partners). The project includes the assembly of a dedicated system and the characterization of the graphitic films (spectroscopic, structural and electrical).

